
TEST OF PROFICIENCY IN KOREAN 2009

TOPIK Administrative Committee

Korea Institute of Curriculum and Evaluation
Ministry of Education, Science and Technology in Korea

Korean Education Centre
Consulate General of the Republic of Korea
in Sydney, NSW 2000, Australia

Korean Proficiency Test

Test of Proficiency in Korean (TOPIK) is designed to assess and certify the language proficiency of learners of Korean as a second or foreign language. Test results can be used as a guideline for placing foreign students into Korean universities or non-native workers into enterprises in Korea or overseas.

1. Eligibility

Applicants should be either those whose first language is not Korean, or background speakers who have not completed formal education in Korea.

2. Date of the test

Saturday 12th September 2009

3. Test site

You may sit the test at one of the following test sites:

Sydney
- University of New South Wales
- University of Sydney
- Australia Korean School: Pennant Hills High
- Lindfield Korean School: Turramurra High
- Saesoon Korean Language School: Hunters Hill High
- Blacktown Korean Language School: Blacktown Girls High
- Korean Catholic Church School:

St Mary's Primary School
- Saturday School of Community Languages, Strathfield Centre: Strathfield Girls High
- Open Door Korean Cultural School: Chatswood
- Sydney Full Gospel Church Saturday School: Greenacre

Brisbane/Gold Coast
- Griffith University: Nathan campus
- Gold Coast Korean School: Southport State High School

Canberra
- Australian National University

Melbourne
- Korean Language School of Melbourne: Wesley College Prahran Campus

Adelaide
- Korean School of Adelaide: The Parade Beulah Park

Tasmania
- Launceston Korean Language School: Launceston

Western Australia
- Korean Association of Language WA Kent St Senior High School

(Note: Not all test levels may be available at some test sites)

4. Test format

The test type: three levels (Beginner, Intermediate, Advanced)

Evaluation Grade: six grades (First grade thru Sixth grade)

Information on the test levels can be obtained at '8. Web pages'

The test consists of 4 sections

- vocabulary/grammar
- writing (90 min)
- listening
- reading (90 min)

5. Test Score Classification

Level	Grade	Successful Test Score
Beginner	1 st Grade	Over 50 points
	2 nd Grade	More Than 70 points
Intermediate	3 rd Grade	Over 50 points
	4 th Grade	More Than 70 points
Advanced	5 th Grade	Over 50 points
	6 th Grade	More Than 70 points

6. Announcement of results

4 November 2009

7. Application procedure

1) Obtaining an application form

Application forms can be obtained at one of the test sites, TOPIK Administration Centre or downloaded from the website of 'Korean Education Centre' (www.auskec.org).

2) Lodging the application form

Application forms must be lodged at the TOPIK Administration Centre by 15th July

3) Test voucher

Once the host institutions receive the application form, a test voucher will be posted to the applicant approximately 4 weeks prior to the test date.

4) Test fees

Beginner (1 & 2 Grade) : $20
Intermediate (3 & 4 Grade) : $25
Advanced (5 & 6 Grade) : $35

- Please note that only cheques or money orders will be accepted by post.
- Cheques or money orders must be made payable to 'TOPIK'

8. Web pages

Please visit the following websites of 'Korean Education Centre' or 'TOPIK' for further information and past papers.

www.auskec.org ----RESOURCE → Korean Language → Tertiary/General
<http://www.topik.or.kr> -----기출문제

9. Checklist

Before lodging your application, please be sure that your application includes the following:

1. Completed Application Form
2. 2 Photographs (3x4 cm)
3. Test fee

For more information please contact:

TOPIK Administration

Korean Education Centre
Consulate General of the Republic of Korea
in Sydney
Level 13, 111 Elizabeth St., Sydney NSW 2000
GPO Box 1601, Sydney 2001
Tel: (02) 9210-0228 / 0216
Fax: (02) 9235-1642
Web: www.auskec.org
E-mail: consyd7@mofat.go.kr